Proctor 'Ashby' Announces For Sheriff

To the Democratic Voters of Hopkins County:

I hereby make my announcement as a candidate for the democratic nomination for Sheriff, subject to the action of the party at the primary to be held August 2, 1913.

In announcing for this office I do so believing I know well its duties, difficulties and responsibilities. I have been for a number of years a deputy sheriff, bearing its hardships and its burdens. Yet in all these years I have never shirked a duty, whether fraught with danger or filled with pleasure. These years of service have prepared me to discharge the duties of the office in a manner I could not do were I unfamiliar with its work.

I believe a public office is a public trust and an officer should be a servant of the people, and if elected I promise to give to all a fair and square deal, rendering unto each one that which is his, saving for my state, county and people whenever I can and lessen as much as I can their burdens. I shall have an absolute rule of honesty, fairness and courtesy for myself and those connected with me. I shall apply business principles in the conduct of the office. I am seeking this office on my merits and my work in the past and not on the record of my ancestors, nor on the demerits, if they have any, of my opponents.

I want your support. If you will elect me and if the faithful performance of my duties is any reward you shall have it. I ask you as taxpayers and voters to examine my record and if I have been faithful in my work then reward me by calling me higher. I have borne the heat, the cold, the hardships and the burdens; I believe I am qualified--shall I have the reward? Believing you will aid me I beg to remain.

Yours truly,

PROCTOR ASHBY,
Madisonville, Ky., Jan. 24, 1913.

ATTENTION

Lycum Course Ticket Holders

The Fourth number of the Lycum course will be given Feb. 3. The attraction for this is the Fraternity Glee Club. A male quartette, which is just as good in its make up as any on the platform today. The highest recommendation is given it from all sources. The Glee Club gives a clean, clear, cut program of music and story closing with a little sketch called "College Days." If you are in favor of a good clean entertainment, bring your friends with you and enjoy the Lycum numbers.

'Round The Roundhouse (By R. R. Ritter)

Change Of Thought

Queer, it may seem to you all, Wherever this paper is sent; My name, Rail Road Ritter, is a stall. But the prose and poetry I invent. When I write of serious incidents That are filled with nothing wrong; Some of the readers seem so dense, They say I'm George Armstrong.

Often I write, in prose, the news, Some jokes mixed up with the fun; They change ideas, have other views And say it's Pil-kin-ton.

Then the poetry, which is sad, appears, It is always touching, you know; Again the readers change with tears, They know it's Elgie Goodloe.

When the poem tells of something gay, So motorious on bridge and track, The railroad boys all think one way, They swear it's Henry Mac.

You can hear them all called "Ritter" The reports are always false, though; Men who are silent are growing brighter, And I'm growing brighter, also.

The boys all fight when called nick-names, Of course when called, they respond; "Boscow," "Ghost" and "Round Head Burt,"

"Skinny," "Buck Tilda" and "Bottled in Bond," I'd forgotten "Bunk," "Preacher" and "Rip."

"Fresh Meat," "Paw said" and "Banker;" "Hecla," "Fruit Tree" and one with the Grip.

"Happy," "Crocket" and "Ned" who pulls the anchor.

General Foreman R. B. Salmons, was at Providence one day last week.

Cinzel Blair has been working in Y. M. C. A. Wilkins' place, while Wilkins was laying off.

T. H. Chattem, was off sick a few days last week.

Foreman Car Department J. E. Hibbs was in Providence last week on business.

One of the office boys, who is a little Socialistic, says fireman M. L. Clark has resorted to and taken advantage of the one great privilege the workmen have today, which is resigning.

Engineer P. H. Whalen, who has been off sick sometime has reported for duty.

J. D. O'Brien, was off Munday.

Firman J. V. Poag worked some last week.

Several new boys are working 'round the roundhouse. Names unknown.

Fireman T. H. Smith has reported for work again.

Paul McGary is working here again.

Porter Willis is looking better from some cause or other, perhaps the other.

There was one place between here and Evansville where the water was so high that it was above the seats at some places. It happened that the water was in the cooler.

There was a shortage in firemen at Earlinton last week. McHardy would have gone out but he had to go to Madisonville to see a lawyer about a divorce or something else.

We have been blessed with no insurance agents for a long spell.

Joe O'Connor, who has been enjoying poor health for sometime is complaining of feeling better.

George Armstrong is taking a course in Mechanical engineering. He put a bottom in a coal bucket last week.

From the looks of the mail-box at the office a few days ago, they had either been handling parcels Post mail or the caller had been trying to climb the wall while he was asleep.

One old man, who works here, says there is no key better than whiskey, unless it's "Bosco's" key to the tool room.

C. M. Browning is general car inspector at Atkinson while Henify is laying off.

If you want to know who is sick, call George Armstrong R. R. Ritter. You may remember the hospital.

Hardy physics react, weaken the bowels, will lead to chronic constipation. Doan's Kidney Pills cure it. See a box at 10c each.

Nebo Notes

Our rural mail carrier on route No. 1, Bert Hobgood, has not been able to go the whole route for two weeks on account of the backwaters, two or three bridges on clear creek are washed away. He says it will be another week before he can safely travel the route, he goes every day as far as he can, while Wallace Barron on route No. 2 hasn't lost a day. There are no high waters to cross, it is hills and hills.

John Niswonger and Miss Helen Winstead, two of our popular young people, stole a march on their friends by going to Madisonville and getting married by Rev. C. F. Wimberly. They returned that night and were met at the train by all the young folks of the town, a closed cab was ready for them, and as the groom helped his bride in, hands were laid on him, and he was informed that a special car was waiting for him and six strong arms lifted him gently into a wheel borrow and followed by the cheering crowd he was wheeled at a rapid gait up town, where the cab containing the bride was waiting. The groom thanked the friends for the ride and entered the cab, were driven to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Niswonger, where a nice supper was prepared. We wish them a happy married life.

Willis Harris applied for and obtained a job on the L. & N. R. He left Sunday on the noon train for Earlington to go to work Monday. His wife and little son will stay at her parents at Madisonville, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Sisk, until they get located.

Miss Allie Campbell came home Saturday night, her school at Isely closed Friday, the following young ladies dined with her Sunday, Misses Mabel Graham, Erma Hill, May Eudley, Ruby Ligon. These young ladies are the remnant of the Y. L. C. (Young Ladies Culture Club) or as the boys call them (the old maid club.) Five years ago there were thirteen on the roll call, now there are five. All are married and gone but this quietude and they have more fun than anybody.

Charley Ezelle, is visiting his grandfather, A. M. Campbell. Mrs. J. L. Rogers, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Tom Cansler at Earlington.

Tommie Knox worshiped at Earlington Sunday. The gospel preachers Webb and Noble, are still preaching at the M. E. church.

JOHN G. SALMON OLD EARLINGTON MAN

Asks The People Of Earlington To Endorse Him For The Office Of

COUNTY COURT CLERK

Elsewhere in this issue of the Bee appears the announcement of John G. Salmon as a candidate for the democratic nomination for County Court Clerk of Hopkins County. John Salmon is no stranger to the people of Earlington, he having been born in this city and lived here during the early part of his life. He is the only son of Lee Salmon, better known as "Uncle Lee" who was so well loved and honored by the people of Earlington and vicinity. He left Earlington several years ago and since that time has made his home in various portions of the county, including Isley, Nebo and Madisonville.

It gives the Bee much pleasure to say for John Salmon that he measures up to the requirements of a man in every respect. He is a hard worker, a clever, genial companion and thoroughly capable in a business way. He has numerous friends in this portion of the County who hope and believe he will land the plum and he is generally conceded to be a strong factor in the race. He is a fighting democrat and has never before asked for a public office. The Bee predicts that if he is nominated and elected, he will discharge the duties of the office in a manner that will be highly satisfactory to the people of his County.

Here is a remedy that will cure your cold. Why waste time and money experimenting when you can get a preparation that has won a world-wide reputation by its cures of this disease and can always be depend upon. It is known every where as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and is a medicine of real merit. For sale by All Dealers.

AN EFFORT BEING MADE

To Have L. & N. Run Interurban to Madisonville on First Trip of Morning

There are by actual count eighteen people that live in Madisonville that come to Earlington every morning this is not counting the insurance agents carpenters, paper hangers, bricklayers and others that make here when they have calls for different kinds of work, the Dixie Flyer is late nearly every morning and an effort is being made to have the Interurban go to Madisonville before it goes to Nortonville and then those that work here and Mortons Gap that live in Madisonville and those that work in Madisonville that live here can get to their work in time to do a days work we hope. We have that work here and live in Madisonville. Noel Hard-

King and two sons, Miss Ann Davis, Dr. W. P. Ross, Sam Offitt, Perkin Adams, Percy Stewart, M. B. Ray, Mark Johnson, and Orlean Downey. At Mortons Gap there is Cal Walker, Virgil Bacon. Then there are the Misses Ashby, Olinier and several others that work in Madisonville, the train would accommodate several if it were to go to Madisonville in the morning before it made the trip to Nortonville

"Suffered day and night the torment of aching limbs. Nothing helped me until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. The result was lasting." Mrs. John R. Garrett, Maple Grove, Wis.
